

I am opposed to having the FCC no longer regulate broadband service. I feel that the FCC needs to continue its regulation of broadband service so that the telephone giants do not gain total, 100% monopoly over internet services. My internet service is with a small local provider, and I would like to keep it that way.

Thank you,

Judy Pineda